

Union Sports Arena Adult Hockey Development Clinics

Starting April 7, 2013
Sundays: 8:00-9:00 pm

Intended for both male and female players age 18 and older.

Price: $30 per session

The Adult Hockey Clinic caters to adult hockey players who wish to improve their individual skills and overall knowledge of the game. The clinic is designed as an enjoyable and rewarding way to stay in shape and improve your hockey skills. The skills that are addressed are: skating, stick handling, shooting, and positioning. The clinic will include scrimmages and is designed for beginning to intermediate hockey players. Skaters are grouped by experience and skill level.

All participants should have basic skating skills (Forward & Backward Skating, forward crossovers, and hockey stop).

Full hockey equipment is required.

Program Goals:

- To develop and improve individual hockey skating, shooting, stickhandling and passing skills within a small group format.
- To enhance player balance, speed, agility, flexibility.
- To teach basic teamwork, team strategy and game concepts.

Coaching:

Players will be coached primarily by Matt Gualtieri assisted by other Union Sports Arena coaches.
